This two-story frame residential dwelling was built in 1920 according to the tax records. Although historic maps (Martenet 1885, Hopkins 1878) indicate a structure at this location, it is unlikely that this is the same structure. The property features vinyl exterior siding and replacement windows. There is also a frame outbuilding/garage on the rear of the property.

The property is not known to be associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of local, state or national history (criteria A). The property is not known to be associated with the lives of persons significant in the local, state, or national past (criteria B). The property does not embody the distinctive characteristics of a type; period or method of construction represent the work of a master; or possess high artistic values (criteria C). Finally, the property is not likely to yield information important in local, state, or national prehistory or history (criteria D).
